Past International Director Larry Edwards

And we Continue To Serve, Let's Make Our Mark

Greetings, Lions and Leos,

While sitting on my porch, I begin to see some leaves dropping and turning more brown than green. That means fall is around the corner. We have all had a summer of fun, adventure and travel. Now is the time to get back to the business of Mission 1.5, generate those members and start up the club service activities.

The recent Lions Magazine has been delivered and we can all read about our new President Fabricio Oliveira and his objectives, "Make Your Mark." We will have him as our Multiple District Guest in May at the State Convention. Plan now on attending.

Speaking of the magazine, I spent an afternoon reading it. One article caught my attention, page 27, Two Generations-One Mission. Lion Susan and I met both of the two individuals featured. PID Dr. Jack Weber and his son were at the District Convention I spoke at in Syracuse and Leo-Lion Hilary Wickenhauser was with her family when I was the district guest in Minnesota. Both are outstanding Lions and have learned how to serve others. Each had several tips for making the most of your Lions experience. If you have not read these yet, please do. I will share them with you.

PID Jack says:

- Don't just have a drink at the bar, have dinner and go home. Get involved.
- Climb the ladder of leadership in your club. If time permits become chair of a committee. That may lead to becoming a club officer.
- Perform hands-on service instead of just making a financial contribution.
- Expand beyond your club by attending district and multiple district meetings. If you can, go to your MD convention and try to attend an International convention.
- Volunteer to chair an important committee at the district and multi-district levels.

Leo Lion Hilary says:

- Don't be afraid to speak up. Offer suggestions, propose new ideas and projects, and make your voice heard.
- Find mentors, young and more senior Lions are full of ideas and knowledge that can help you further your journey.
- Remember that age is just a number. We are all equally valuable as members and volunteers whether we are 26 or 86.
- Ask for help! Trying new things can be a challenge. Turn to your fellow Lions and even non-Lions for support.
- Keep service at the heart of all you do.

If we as Lions can follow these tips, what an improvement our organization will see.

Until the next time we meet at a Lions event, I wish you all the best and remember to keep serving and Make Your Mark.

From Council Chair Larry A. Frankenfield

MD-14 Lions and Leos,

Welcome to a new Lions year. My name is Larry A. Frankenfield and I am the Council Chair of MD-14 for 2024-2025. I would like to let you know a little bit about me. I have been a member of the Upper Perkiomen Valley Lions Club since 2012. I have worked through all the chairs in the club and served as a Leo advisor. Having received several awards and a Melvin Jones Fellowship, service to the community is my main goal. At the district level I have served as Zone Chair, and District Governor 2021-2022 and again in 2023-2024. Family life is also important having seven children, 16 grandchildren, and one great grandson. I am a widower and this past year became engaged. Serving as Council Chair is a great honor and I ask for your help to make this year great.

I hope all of you are working on Mission 1.5. The whole project starts at the club level and we need your help. As of this month we have 1.35 million members. I don't have a magic bullet to improve things, so any idea is welcome. Will we be able to achieve this goal? I sure hope so, you know what happens when you put a challenge in front of a Lion. There are only a few districts in the state that are positive on membership.

Service reporting is an area that we must improve. Reporting service improves the opportunity for grants and help from the community. We say it all the time that Lions are the best kept secret and it is very true. When the community knows of the service projects, people want to help and membership could improve.

All clubs have their local projects, but always remember our core Lions projects. This includes LCIF. Any time you can honor someone with a Melvin Jones Fellowship is a great thing.

President Oliveira is asking all Lions to go out into your community and provide a service project that will impact their lives. MAKE YOUR MARK.

Global Service Organizations Unite for Fourth Annual "Celebrate Community" Week to Tackle Health, Hunger, Education, and Environment

(Oak Brook, Ill., September 16, 2024) – Community service took center stage September 8-14 for the fourth annual Celebrate Community joint initiative from Kiwanis International, Lions International, Optimist International and Rotary International. The project encouraged members of each organization to work together to serve their local communities.

Members of the four volunteer service organizations shared ideas and united to collaborate on projects focused on issues related to health and wellness, food insecurity and hunger, education and literacy and the environment. Efforts included activities such as community cleanups, food donations and distributions, walks or runs to raise money for specific causes and collecting books to help children build personal libraries.

"We are grateful for the opportunity to collaborate with other service clubs through Celebrate Community to build stronger communities worldwide," said Kiwanis International President Katrina Baranko.

"I am proud to watch Lions and Leos join forces with other service-minded volunteers around the world during Celebrate Community week," said Lions International President Fabrício Oliveira. "This collaboration highlights the incredible impact we can achieve when we unite our strengths and resources. Together, we are addressing critical issues such as health, hunger, education, and the environment, making a tangible difference in the lives of those in need."

"This year's Celebrate Community was a shining example of what can be achieved when service organizations unite," said Optimist International President Tracy Huxley.

"Together, we amplified our impact and proved that collaboration is the key to bringing out the best in youth, communities and ourselves."

"When organizations like ours join together and partner with communities to meet their needs, we're able to achieve more than we ever could on our own," said Rotary International President Stephanie Urchick. "What's more, by working together, our participants feel engaged and foster social connections and a sense of belonging, all of which are essential components of mental health and wellness and member retention."

The joint project also allowed community members serving in different clubs to learn more about each other, their organizations, and their combined efforts to help children and adults challenged by environmental or financial difficulties.

Shippensburg Lions Complete Restoration; Continue to Support Park

The Shippensburg Lions Club, 14-C, has been a long-time-supporter of Shippensburg Memorial Park. That support continued during the 2023-2024 Club year with a renovation of the restrooms inside the Park.

Since collecting more than $1,500 in 1947-1948 towards the building of Memorial Park, the Shippensburg Lions Club has worked tirelessly to make improvements to the Park. The original scoreboard, the large pavilion, and the Park plan purchase of 4.5 acres for $5,000 are just some of the early contributions the Lions Club has made that benefit the Park.

In the 70s, the Lions members screened the ceiling and painted the large pavilion at a cost of $1,500, one side of the roof was replaced at a cost of $800 and $3,600 was donated toward the purchase of more Park acres under Project 70. This amount represented half of the local cost. The Club also contributed $3,000 to help pay the debt on the new Community Building.

In 2002, the Shippensburg Lions spent more than $35,000 for major repairs and renovations to the food concession stand. Many members donated time and materials to help make the project successful. In the last 25 years the Club invested more than $50,000 for Park improvements including a new roof and plywood ceiling for the large pavilion. The Lions also donated $5,000 toward the renovation of Memorial Park Swimming Pool. In 2017, a donation for a new ice machine was made for the Pool area.

Last year the Shippensburg Lions took on the project of updating the restroom facilities directly inside the Park, a project that had been long overdue. The total cost of the project was $18,730. The updated facilities are a welcome addition for visitors to the Park.

Lions Club has been part of polo club for 78 years

By Justin Powers

As a third-generation polo player, I grew up immersed in the rich traditions that make this sport so special. From the divot stomping at halftime to the camaraderie shared among players and spectators alike, polo is steeped in history and customs that have been passed down through the generations.

One of the most cherished traditions in my family, and indeed for many in the small, Western Pennsylvania, polo community, is the ritual of enjoying fresh-cut french fries from the Lions Club stand on Friday nights at the Darlington Polo Club, featuring the first lighted polo field in the world.

Darlington Polo and the Lions Club are both rich in history and a source of pride for their community. Polo players love playing on historic fields or in events that have a sense of purpose (e.g., charity matches). Thanks to the Lions Club, since 1947, every match in Darlington has had some charitable aspect.

Lions Club International, founded in 1917, is a global service organization that empowers volunteers to serve their communities and meet humanitarian needs. Interestingly, the organization's headquarters are in Oak Brook, Illinois, a city with a prominent polo tradition, catty-corner from the historic Prince of Wales polo field.

While Lions Club International's headquarters is near hallowed polo grounds, on the banks of the Little Beaver Creek, a Lions Club installation is part of the infamous polo grounds of the Darlington "Nightriders."

As you turn off Constitution Boulevard, onto the windy back roads leading to Darlington's small community (less than 250 residents), you are greeted by an old, rusty welcome sign: "Darlington home of ... Darlington Polo Club & Lions Club International."

Darlington, a town founded in 1804, experienced steady growth throughout the 19th century, thanks to its strategic location along the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad. However, like many communities in the region, Darlington faced significant economic challenges in the mid-20th century, a period known as the Rust Belt era. The closing of the brick factory and other manufacturing plants led to a decline in population and a struggling local economy.

Despite these challenges, Darlington has managed to maintain a strong sense of community, with residents coming together to support one another and preserve the town's unique character. The Darlington Polo Club, founded in 1937, has been a constant presence throughout the town's history.

Like many historical polo clubs, the crowds at today's matches pale in comparison to the crowds of yesteryear when there was a huge opportunity to capitalize on the droves of people coming to polo. The Little Beaver Lions Club was organized in the spring of 1947, shortly after the Watterson family introduced polo to Darlington.

Their inaugural fundraising event was selling refreshments during homes games on Wednesday and Saturday nights, a tradition that has continued for 77 seasons, interrupted only by the pandemic in 2020.

Over the years, the concession stand has expanded from a temporary structure to its current footprint, which includes a second-floor announcer's booth and an accompanying pavilion, allowing the community to utilize the polo field for other events, including graduation parties, fishing derbies and even a couple of weddings!

It is hard to imagine polo in Darlington without the Lions Club, its past and present volunteers and its foresight to recognize the potential to raise funds for its charitable initiatives while supporting a beloved local institution.

In 1955, one of the club's most notable achievements was recruiting Dr. Nelson Kennedy to the Darlington area. He practiced for 35 years until his retirement in 1992, serving a much-needed role in a community strife with economic hardship.

Other projects supported by the Lions Club include building residential wheelchair ramps, supporting and manning the Darlington Food Bank, providing eyeglasses and hearing aids, supporting the local fire department, financially aiding fire and flood victims and being one of the most active clubs in Pennsylvania in support of the PA Beacon Lodge Camp for the Blind.

In 2006, almost 60 years after their first fundraiser at a polo match, the Little Beaver Lions Club was elected as a Model Club—one of only 30 clubs across the United States to receive this distinction.

In a world where change is constant, the Lions Club's 78-year presence at the Darlington Polo Club stands as a reminder of the enduring values that bind us together. Through their dedication and service, the club's members have not only contributed to the polo club's success, but have also made a lasting impact on the lives of countless individuals in the Darlington community and beyond.

When I was a child, dinner on a Friday night in the summer undoubtedly involved asking my mom for money for french fries at the Lions Club stand. Now, as I watch my toddler son gleefully munching on those same fries, I can't help but feel a sense of continuity and pride.

In Western Pennsylvania, we put french fries on everything, including salads. It's a quirky, unhealthy, regional custom that perfectly encapsulates our community's down-to-earth, unpretentious spirit. And somehow, those Lions Club fries, served up with a side of hometown pride and a dollop of Heinz ketchup (a true Pittsburgh staple), taste all the sweeter for it.

Dr. Warren H. Riegel, "Doc", 90, passed away on Thursday, July 25, 2024.

Born on February 8, 1934, he was the son of the late Henry and Louise (Kapella) Riegel.

On February 18, 1961, he was married to Mary Louise Fairweather, who survives.

He graduated in 1959 from the Pennsylvania State College of Optometry with a Doctor of Optometry degree. After serving in the Navy, he opened his practice in Ridgway where he worked until he retired in 2019.

Warren's life was one of service. He jumped into active participation in the community and the First Presbyterian Church, sitting on boards and participating in the Lions, Boy Scouts, Layman's Breakfast, Ridgway Ambulance, Barbershop, Ridgway Fire Department, and Elk County Concert Choir; among others.

Lion Tracey Amacher of the Ridgway Lions, believes that "Doc" Riegel was the oldest active Lion in their club's history, with 62 years of membership. On September 1, 2022, Lions of 14-J and the Ridgway Lions Club celebrated Lion Doc Riegel for 60 years of service in promoting vision and preventing blindness. Lion Riegel was a Melvin Jones recipient. Lion Tracey stated that even with "Doc's" failing health, his wife Mary Lou would bring him to meetings, and to their Halloween parade, to show support, while other club members passed out hot dogs.

In the 1970s, by faith in Christ, he began a life mission to serve the poor in other countries. He collected used eyeglasses for dispensing on missions in Latin and South America with Medical Ministry International and Eye Care International. This expanded to determining the eyeglasses prescriptions and entering them into a computer (up to 4000 pairs per project) from the Lions' Clubs in western PA and NY. His humanitarian service involved his family as well as volunteers that live locally and in Ohio, sorting and cleaning glasses, and supporting his trips in prayer.

He went on a total of 76 missions to many countries including the Dominican Republic, Haiti, Liberia, Nicaragua, Brazil, Mexico, Honduras, El Salvador, Jamaica, Colombia, Bolivia, Ecuador, and Peru. Through all the years, his enthusiasm for serving God on the next mission was never exhausted. Lion Tracey said that "Doc" told her that he took his grandchildren on these mission trips for eyeglasses. "What a rewarding experience for the grandchildren to see first-hand what their grandfather did to help others see better."

He is survived by his loving wife of 63 years, Mary Lou; his children, Jane Riegel (John Jairo Ruiz) of Marlborough, MA, John (Sylvia) of Newark Valley, NY, Peter (Barbara) of Greenville, PA, and Ruth Shoemaker (Scott) of Charlton, MA; his grandchildren Heidi, Leanne, Allison, Colleen, Renee, and Jessica Riegel, and Hayley and Nathan Shoemaker; and his brother, Roy (Patrice).

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Medical Ministry International US, PO Box 17593, San Antonio, TX 78217-9998 or Eye Care International, c/o Phil Loar, 7136 Parkview Avenue, Falls Church, VA 22042.

The Brogue Community Lions Club of District 14-C conducted a "Safe Driving Awareness" event over the 4th of July holiday. The Lions offered free coffee and donuts at their Lions Park located on Route 74 in York County for three mornings beginning on Thursday, July 4th through Saturday, July 6th. The theme for the event was to share the road, since they are located in a rural area, motorists need to share the road with farm vehicles and Amish buggies. On display were a large farm vehicle that was provided by Ellie Barley of Star Rock Farms and an Amish buggy provided by Henry Esch. It was noted that motorists need to 1) Drive Defensively, 2) Slow Down, 3) Pass Carefully, 4) Be Cautious, 5) Take a Second Look and 6) Be Calm. This event was also a way to showcase the Lions Park's new pavilion and updates that were recently completed.

NO LIQUOR IN RAFFLES!

Liquor not permitted in basket raffles

Please be aware: A popular staple in basket raffles is a “no-no.”

After researching the matter with the Executive Director of the PA House of Representatives' Liquor Committee and the PA Liquor Control Board, MD-14 legal counsel Lion Ashley Grimm reported that “liquor is not permitted to be in a basket for purposes of a raffle. This also includes silent auctions.

“This equates to selling liquor without a license,” Lion Grimm said. “A wine and spirits gift card is permitted to be included in a raffle basket, though.”

Lion Grimm’s research supported the opinion expressed by Lawrence County Treasurer Richard Rapone in a recent New Castle News story that had prompted MD-14 State Council Chair Bill Morgan to contact Lion Grimm.

As part of the News story, Capt. Jamie Jones of the LCB Enforcement Bureau said including any type of alcoholic beverage – be it a six pack of beer, a bottle of wine, a bottle of whiskey or the like – is a violation of the Pennsylvania Liquor Code, Title 47, and is an unclassified misdemeanor offense. The fine upon conviction is $500, levied to the organization sponsoring the fundraiser and not the donor of the basket.

In the News story, Rapone pointed out, under the state’s small games of chance law, it is illegal to host basket raffles at fundraising dinners used to benefit someone who is sick.
